Privacy Notice

At the White Sheet Radio Flying Club hereafter referred to as “the club” or “WSRFC”, we’re committed to protecting and respecting your privacy.

We have not appointed a Data Protection Officer to oversee our compliance with data protection laws as we are not required to do so, but our Data Protection Compliance Manager has overall responsibility for data protection compliance in our club. Contact details are set out in the “Contacting us” section at the end of this privacy notice.

This notice explains when and why we collect personal information about people who join the club by whatever means, how we use it, the conditions under which we may disclose it to others and your rights in relation to your personal data.

We may change this notice from time to time so please check the website at or request a copy occasionally to ensure that you’re happy with any changes. By becoming a member of the club, you’re agreeing to be bound by this notice.

<http://whitesheet.org.uk/club-rules-constitution/>

Any questions regarding this notice and our privacy practices should be sent by email to chairman@whitesheet.org.uk or by writing to:

How do we collect information about you?

We obtain information about you when you apply to become a member of the club either by submission of a membership form, via telephone, or in person. In the future, we may also use the new online BMFA club portal system, once this becomes available (planned for June/July 2018).

What type of information is collected about you?

The personal information we collect might include your name, address, email address, telephone number, gender and IP address.

The legal basis for the processing of your personal data is to enable the club to fulfil our contractual obligations and provide membership services. We also are obliged to retain information for other legal requirements, for instance for HMRC regulations compliance, in respect of the club accounts.

How is your information used?

We may use your information to

- process your membership;
- carry out our obligations arising from your membership;
- seek your views or comments on matters relating to the club and model aircraft flying
- notify you of changes to our services;
- send you communications which you have requested and that may be of interest to you. These may include information about club events and contests and other club related matters, also information from the BMFA that may be of interest.

How long do we retain your information?

We will hold your personal information on our systems for as long as is necessary to carry out our obligations in relation to your membership, or as long as is set out in any relevant agreement between us. During membership, the legal basis for processing your data is Contractual.

Once membership has lapsed, we will continue to retain and process your data, for the purposes of communicating club activities and reminders to rejoin for a period of one year after your renewal is due. The legal basis for processing during this period will be Consent and you may withdraw this consent at any time.

Where an individual person's club membership lapses your information will be securely kept (but not processed) for a period of seven years, after which your information will be deleted. This period is to ensure the club meets its other legislative or compliance requirements (eg HMRC).

Who has access to your information?

We will not sell or rent your information to third parties.

We will not share your information with third parties for marketing purposes.

All members of the club must also be members of the BMFA, by joining the club you give consent for your personal data to be shared with the BMFA to enable provision of BMFA membership services.

Please see the BMFA privacy policy at

<https://www.bmfa.org/Privacy-Policy>

Please be reassured that we will not release your information to third parties beyond the club unless we are required to do so by law, for example, by a court order or for the purposes of prevention of fraud or other crime.

In the day-to-day and routine running of the club access to your personal data is restricted to the Treasurer, Membership Secretary and Chairman of WSRFC.

In the case of those members who do not have an electronic (email) address, the Secretary of WSRFC holds a list of these members for the purpose of mailing out newsletters and bulletins otherwise communicated electronically to the wider membership.

How you can access and update your information?

The accuracy of your information is important to us. You can check the information we hold is correct by contacting the club chairman or Data Protection Compliance Manager (see the contact section at the end of this policy) and requesting to clarify the information we hold about you.

In future it is hoped that the members dashboard area of the BMFA website may be used for this purpose directly.

What are your rights?

The right to access

You have the right to confirmation as to whether or not we process your personal data and, where we do, access to the personal data, together with certain additional information. That additional information includes details of the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned and the recipients of the personal data.

Providing the rights and freedoms of others are not affected, we will supply to you a copy of your personal data. The first copy will be provided free of charge, but additional copies may be subject to a reasonable fee.

The right to rectification

You have the right to have any inaccurate personal data about you rectified and, taking into account the purposes of the processing, to have any incomplete personal data about you completed.

The right to erasure

In some circumstances you have the right to the erasure of your personal data without undue delay. Those circumstances include: the personal data being no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which the data was collected or otherwise processed, you are no longer a club member and wish the data not to be held for our standard seven years.

Data that the club holds in relation to its accounting obligations, such as evidence of a transaction between you and the club, would be exempt from this erasure policy during the standard seven years that the club will keep this accounting record.

Please note a request for data erasure for a current member would require that member to forfeit membership. The data is required for the club to fulfill its obligations.

The right to restrict processing

In some circumstances you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data.

Those circumstances are:

- you contest the accuracy of the personal data;

- processing is unlawful but you oppose erasure;
- we no longer need the personal data for the purposes of our processing, but you require personal data for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- you have objected to processing, pending the verification of that objection.

Where processing has been restricted on this basis, we may continue to store your personal data.

However, we will only otherwise process it: with your consent; for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person; or for reasons of important public interest.

The right to object to processing

You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data for direct electronic communications purposes. If you make such an objection, we will cease to process your personal data for this purpose.

The right to data portability

To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal data is that the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are party and such processing is carried out by automated means, you have the right to receive your personal data from us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. However, this right does not apply where it would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

The right to complain to a supervisory authority

If you consider that our processing of your personal information infringes data protection laws, you have a legal right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

<https://ico.org.uk>

The right to withdraw consent

To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal information is consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. Withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of processing before the withdrawal.

Exercising your rights

You may exercise any of your rights in relation to your personal data by written notice to us.
